All Rise - Premieres September 23rd on CBS

All Rise is a courthouse drama that follows the chaotic, hopeful, and sometimes absurd lives of its judges, prosecutors, and public defenders, as they work with bailiffs, clerks, and cops to get justice for the people of Los Angeles amidst a flawed legal process.

Among them is newly appointed Judge Lola Carmichael (Simone Missick), a highly regarded and impressive deputy district attorney who doesn't intend to sit back on the bench in her new role, but instead leans in, immediately pushing the boundaries and challenging the expectations of what a judge can be.

A Brother's Honor - Premieres October 4th on Passionflix

This is the screen adaptation of Soror Brenda Jackson's book of the same name. It will be the first program on the network with a Black storyline.

It is the story of three brothers who are reunited after their grandfather suffers a heart attack. The Granger men, Jace, Caden and Dalton, promise their dying grandfather that they will work together to save the family's failing business, Granger Aeronautics. In the process, the brothers also find themselves banding together to find out who really killed their mother to free their father, Sheppard, who is serving a 30-year prison sentence for her murder. It's a story of family secrets, business mismanagement, intrigue and a little romance.

Members interested in subscribing to Passionflix may take advantage of a reduced monthly rate of $3.99 being offered for the first 3 months instead of the regular monthly cost of $5.99.
